Utah Afterschool Network Regional Networks

What is a regional network?
A group of out-of-school time providers and youth-serving community organizations who convene, connect, and coordinate regularly to expand out-of-school learning opportunities for K-12 youth in Utah by:
• Sharing best practices
• Mobilizing around shared outcomes
• Engaging and supporting legislative and advocacy efforts
• Advocating for programs
• Networking with afterschool professionals
• Identifying relevant and timely topics of interest specific to needs of the community

Why should you join?
• Connect with out-of-school time programs in your region
• Share best practices, ideas, and resources
• Network and get to know the programs and leaders in your area
• Earn professional activity credit for the Utah Afterschool Professional Credential
• Participate in centralized training and information dissemination

What is UAN's role within a regional network?
• Co-facilitate with the goal of passing on the facilitation role to local leadership
• Convene and connect professionals
• Support and provide resources

The Utah Afterschool Network is a statewide agency that ensures Utah’s children have access to high quality afterschool programs that keep them engaged, learning, and safe. UAN assists afterschool teams in building quality programs by mentoring program staff, facilitating professional learning opportunities, and collaboratively creating a model of best practices for programs statewide.
